Unpacked the bags and went and looked some more, and it turns out there were all sorts of these fungi growing around -- they just started popping into my sight the more I looked and walked around.

One option is to buy a dedicated macro lens (the Canon 100mm is a good example) for a few hundred dollars, and that's all you get: a dedicated piece of glass with only one focal length and limited application.

I had forgotten some of his Photoshop advice on filters, but he just posted a little tutorial on High-Pass Filtering in Photoshop, and it's all coming back to me now.

Highland bulls, maybe Scottish Highland bulls, not quite sure.

Shot with a 70-200mm lens and a full set of Kenko extension tubes -- Was within about an inch for these shots. Don't think I had the maturity or experience back in to understand this (and I certainly don't have it all now, just more of it).

It's a fantastic trick.

Digital camera and some spare memory cards to hold all the pictures.

Really good stuff.
