I used a Canon 580EX and the infrared controller that mounts on the camera, but a hot-shoe cord is a lot cheaper and perfectly fine for the small distances you will work in.

I did my best to identify this.

Used it mostly to help bring out some detail in the darks in this fellow's clothes, and to then select the lights of the sidewalk and adjust the color and curves a bit.

Really good stuff.

I was inside and the Katydid jumped onto a glass door, hence the good underbelly shot.

Digital camera and some spare memory cards to hold all the pictures.

My daughter and I went out shooting in downtown Blue Ridge Ga at sunset -- she's getting into photography and that makes me excited.

Highland bulls, maybe Scottish Highland bulls, not quite sure.

Don't know if you've heard of the technique of sitting your camera on top of a bag or rice or beans to steady it when you are low to the ground.
